

Hanover Schools Mathematics Mastery Vocabulary

Grade 2 Glossary

From <http://www.doe.mass.edu/frameworks/current.html>

Glossary Sources

- (H) Harcourt Animated Math Glossary. Referenced February 29–March 2, 2000.
<www.hbschool.com/glossary/math/glossary8.html>
- (W) Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary. Referenced February 29–March 2, 2000.
<m-w.com/dictionary.htm>

Analog Having to do with data represented by continuous variables, e.g., a clock with hour, minute, and second hands. (W)

Cardinal number A number (as 1, 5, 15) that is used in simple counting and that indicates how many elements there are in a set.

Counting number A number used in counting objects, i.e., a number from the set 1, 2, 3, 4, 5,....

Digit a) Any of the Arabic numerals 1 to 9 and usually the symbol 0; b) One of the elements that combine to form numbers in a system other than the decimal system.

Digital Having to do with data that is represented in the form of numerical digits; providing a readout in numerical digits, e.g., a digital watch.

Whole number A number that is either a counting number or zero.