Massachusetts Department of Public Health Bureau of Family and Community Health School Health Unit

Epinephrine Competency Skill Checklist

The following competencies have been demonstrated by staff persor States the responsibilities of the school nurse for training and supervision Identifies common causes of allergic emergencies Describe general and student-specific warning signs of allergic emergency Demonstrates how to activate the school's plan for responding to emergencie Identifies student for whom epinephrine is prescribed Interprets accurately the emergency medication administration plan Follows the directions on the medication administration plan Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector Demonstrates the correct procedure for giving epinephrine by auto-injector
 Identifies common causes of allergic emergencies Describe general and student-specific warning signs of allergic emergency Demonstrates how to activate the school's plan for responding to emergencies Identifies student for whom epinephrine is prescribed Interprets accurately the emergency medication administration plan Follows the directions on the medication administration plan Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
 Describe general and student-specific warning signs of allergic emergency Demonstrates how to activate the school's plan for responding to emergencie Identifies student for whom epinephrine is prescribed Interprets accurately the emergency medication administration plan Follows the directions on the medication administration plan Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
 Demonstrates how to activate the school's plan for responding to emergencies Identifies student for whom epinephrine is prescribed Interprets accurately the emergency medication administration plan Follows the directions on the medication administration plan Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
 Identifies student for whom epinephrine is prescribed Interprets accurately the emergency medication administration plan Follows the directions on the medication administration plan Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
 Interprets accurately the emergency medication administration plan Follows the directions on the medication administration plan Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
☐ Follows the directions on the medication administration plan ☐ Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage ☐ Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
☐ Reads the label on the epinephrine auto-injector, assuring the correct dosage ☐ Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
☐ Demonstrates safe handling of epinephrine auto-injector
☐ Demonstrates the correct procedure for giving epinephrine by auto-injector
 Describes how to access emergency medical services, school nurse, student's parents/guardians (or other persons, student's physician)
Signatures: Supervised by, RN
Staff Person
Date:

Source: MDPH 12/96

EpiPen® Competency Checklist