

Reader's Journey

12th Grade English Elective

- Designed for students who want to develop as readers, whether they are avid readers who already know their reading preferences or reluctant readers looking to discover their identities as readers.
- Allows students to choose their own texts and develop an individualized reading plan to address their reading strengths and weaknesses as well as their interests.
- Students' reading lists will include both fiction and nonfiction texts that span a variety of cultures, time periods and genres.
- Together we will work with short stories, essays, and poetry to explore the conventions of different genres and the critical reading skills that can be applied to any text.
- Students will apply these skills to their own texts through essays, projects, and weekly reading journals.
- Will culminate in the development of a project that is planned, prepared, and presented in close association with teacher and community involvement.
- Students can take this course at either a college preparatory or honors level.
