Developmental Expectations

10 Ways to Get Your Child Ready for K

1. Play outside.
2. Limit screen time.
3. Teach your child to WAIT.
4. Early, consistent bedtimes (myth daycare vs. full day K same)
5. Provide opportunities for children to be bored.
6. Encourage independent problem solving with peer and sibling conflicts.
7. Play board and card games. Let them lose.
8. Keep schedules at a minimum in the fall. Kinders are tired. It takes at least 8 weeks to adjust.
9. Encourage overall independence with coats, bags, mealtimes, shoes, backpacks, lunchboxes.
10. Teach respect for adults, materials, and peers. Discourage Interrupting.

Positive Behavior Support

- Be Safe
- Be Kind
- Follow the Plan

First Day

I gave you a little wink and smile,
As you entered my room today.
For I know how hard it is to leave,
And know your child must stay.

You've been with them for five years now,
And have been a loving guide.
But now, alas, the time has come
To leave them at my side.

Just know that as you drive away,
And tears down your cheeks may flow,
I'll love them as I would my own
And help them learn and grow.

So please put your mind at ease
And cry those tears no more.
For I will love them and take them in
When you leave them at my door.

The background is a solid light purple color. It features several decorative elements: a white star in the top left, a white star in the top right, a white star in the middle left, a white star in the middle right, a white star in the bottom left, and a white star in the bottom right. In the top right corner, there is a stylized orange book with a white spine. In the bottom right corner, there is a yellow lightbulb with a blue base. In the bottom left corner, there are two pens, one white and one orange, both with blue tips.

Thanks!
