

PARENT WORKSHOP

Supporting Children after a Community Loss

AUG 22, 2018 / 6PM TO 8PM

John Curtis Free Library
534 Hanover St. Hanover, MA

Maureen Patterson-Fede, MSW, LICSW from the Good Grief Program and Neena McConnico, Ph.D., LMHC from the Child Witness to Violence Project, both at Boston Medical Center host a panel discussion on how grief, loss, and difficult events impact children and families. Specific consideration will be given to how a child's developmental age affects their understanding of such events as well as how caring adults can use language and strategies to support children's reactions and help them develop adaptive coping mechanisms.

This workshop is in collaboration with the following community partners:
