

Hear Me Now America

By: Lila Minichino

Much has changed since 1945,
But there is still so much to do,
People are rallying loudly yelling,
Just wanting their voices to be heard,
Everyone marching for the same reason,
To have equal rights,

Hear me now America,
I am screaming your name,
The world is evolving quickly,
Just wanting to be saved,

People are trapped,
Stuck inside,
Because of a stupid virus,
Everyone is hoping for the same thing,
For it to die forever,

Global disasters are coming,
Texans are oh so cold,
Earthquakes are killing Cali,
America is starting to unfold,

But people are trying to help that,
People are being saved,
Everyone can be happy,
If we all put in a say,

Hear me now America,
We all can help.
