Extended School Closure Plan, Grades 2-4
Journal Topics

Remember to use capitals, punctuation, correct grammar, and spelling as part of your entry. One to three paragraphs is appropriate for any of your writing entries. Your writing should have a strong starting sentence, lots of details, and an ending/conclusion.

Describe a funny joke you would like to play on someone.

Research some facts about a favorite wild animal. Write one to three paragraphs about that animal. Include information about their habitat, food, and one or more interesting facts that someone might not know about this wild animal.

Many people do spring cleaning in April. What do you need to clean and organize? Explain how you would do it.

Write a letter to a grandparent, relative, or friend.

If you could have any magic power what would it be? How would you use it?

Invent a new type of sandwich. Write about how to make it.

Write a persuasion piece. Would you rather take a vacation in the winter or the summer and to where. Use lots of convincing language to persuade the reader.

Write a story about a baby duck that followed you home one day.

If you could invent a new flavor of jelly bean what would it be? Why?

If you were a mouse, what would your life be like?

Write about a time you were brave. Tell the whole story.

Write a folktale and include some of the elements of folktale: a village or forest setting, good vs. evil, or magic number 3 or 7.

Write a SPRING acrostic poem.

S
P
R
I
N
G

Write an opinion piece telling which is better, ice cream or pizza?

Write a paragraph on any topic that interests you.